God's Gifts to the Saints

Ephesians 4: 11-16

1. God has given the saints a diversity of gifts to be used in the church. As we learned from the sermon, God has also given specific offices in the church to a few select men for equipping the saints with the truth. Beginning with the offices that have ceased, what role did the Apostles and Prophets have in the early church? What reason do we not have them today?

5. A church whose leaders are not equipping the saints and caring for the body is not a church. When a pastor feeds the saints, the congregation will grow up into mature manhood. Why is this so important and critical?

(Especially in the dark world we live in.)
